

Release „Thespians“ by radiospace.

The debut studio album "Thespians" by radiospace. will be released on Friday, 31 March 2023, via kappelrecords.

Combining disco and rock as well as funk and synthesizer, the band radiospace. is gaining more and more notoriety as a newcomer band for their unique groove in the alternative indie rock genre. Now, together with their new label kappelrecords, they are releasing their first album as a result of professional studio work with producers Benjamin Knoke and Sabrina Kuhn (Co). On 31 March 2023, the album "Thespians" with 11 songs will now be released on all known streaming platforms. The singles "From Under The Floorboards" and "White Wine" have already been released in advance as excerpts from the new album.

"Thespians" explores the duality and conflict between the true self and the persona we present to the world - a perpetual struggle we humans face as "Thespians" in our daily social lives, often only knowing how to cope as "actors". Through the songs on the album we are reminded of the complexity of our interpersonal relationships, as well as the personal challenges we face when we are alone with ourselves: How we can deceive ourselves and become "Thespians" ourselves by hiding from our true emotions and desires.

The musical diversity of the album finds recognition in the songs "Her and Them", "From Under The Floorboards" and "White Wine". With catchy guitar riffs and sing-along choruses, these invite listeners to join in.

The lyrics were mostly written by band members Sebastián Peña and Adam Meyer-Hubbert. The composition was done by the band radiospace. which Sebastián Peña (main vocals), Martin Hahn (bass and background vocals), Adam Meyer-Hubbert (guitar and background vocals) and Bastian Albrecht (drums and background vocals) also worked on together over long distances. The rest of the production was done by Benjamin Knoke and Sabrina Kuhn (Co). The recordings were made at different locations by different people. Finally, Benjamin Knoke (InLine Audio Studios) took over and joined all the audio tracks together. The pre-mastering was also done by Benjamin Knoke (InLine Audio Studios). The cover artwork was designed by guitarist Adam Meyer-Hubbert. The album will be released via InLine Audio Studios' own music label: kappelrecords.
